

Malay home-practice card, P1 to P2

A few minutes of Malay a day, on the topics school uses: self, family and school. Tick each day you do it.

① This week

- ☐ Monday: read a Nabil Nabilah book aloud together
Reading. MLLPC has a folder of books for each level.
- ☐ Tuesday: ask about the school day in Malay, and answer in Malay
Spoken interaction.
- ☐ Wednesday: write one simple sentence about a picture
Writing.
- ☐ Thursday: sing a Malay nursery rhyme together
Listening.
- ☐ Friday: play a short online quiz or word game in Malay
Reading.
- ☐ Weekend: borrow a Malay book and tell each other about it
Speaking.

New words this week

The book we read

② The six skills in MOE's syllabus

Listening, reading, speaking, writing, spoken interaction and written interaction. In P1 and P2 there are no weighted assessments or exams.

Our example week, not MOE's. Change it to suit your child. If you are worried about progress, ask the Malay teacher.

Sources: MOE, Malay Language Teaching and Learning Syllabus for Primary School 2024, moe.gov.sg; MLLPC, Siri Bacaan Nabil Nabilah (updated 14 April 2026), mllpc.moe.gov.sg; Schoolbag (MOE), 29 August 2024, schoolbag.edu.sg. All checked 12 October 2026.